

TUESDAYS at TANTUR

A Personal Vision of Jewish Beauty and Art

DAVID MOSS

David Moss has developed his artist/scholar in residencies into a powerful means of conveying Jewish ideas, texts and values through captivating artistic programming. His visits (from two days to a week or more) energize all members of the community as he draws them into the world of his unique artistic vision. His surprising syntheses of tradition with creative artistic expression have proven to be a delightful way to educate and inspire.

7:00—8:30 p.m.

Tuesday, October 30, 2018

Chapel Seminar Room, Tantur Ecumenical Institute

Tuesdays at Tantur is a weekly event that seeks to establish a community of conversation. Co-hosted by the Tantur Ecumenical Institute and Jerusalem Global Gateway of the University of Notre Dame, the series nurtures open discussion on theological and other topics relevant to the life of Jerusalem and the Holy Land.

The Tantur Ecumenical Institute is located at the intersection of Rosmarin and Derech Hebron. Transportation will be provided from the Notre Dame Center near New Gate by the Old City. The bus will leave at 6:30 p.m and return at 9:00 p.m. Please RSVP at rmallek@tantur.org

INTERNATIONAL
Jerusalem Global Gateway